Amy Crowder, tightlancer and corset maker, creates the finest corsets for daily tightlacing, fetish and elegant occasions. Custom corsets created from the stitch up with Amy's two decades of research, design and daily tightlacing experience. Your new Wasp Creations Corset will be expertly tailored to your body, providing the perfect fit. Corset styles range from short active models for high mobility and daily tightlacing, to highly restrictive knee-length for discipline and bondage play. About Wasp Creations continued.

Update for May 7, 2010

I am proud to introduce the new, Overbust Corset for men. This style of corset places added compression over the pectoral muscles and rises high on the back. Click here for more information about this new corset style.

I have also started a new blog called "Addicted to Corsets". The new blog documents certain aspects of my life as a tightlancer. In addition, it will hopefully show that one can still have an active life full of adventure even when wearing a tightly-laced corset.

Update for April 26, 2010

Presenting new prices for my bespoke (made-to-measure) corsets. The new prices are basically 30% off. All corsets are still of the same high-quality designs and workmanship as before, but new sewing techniques have sped up production. The new prices are reflected at each corset style's description page as well as the Price List Page.

Fetish Factory Weekend 2010

I will be in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida May 27th thru May 31st attending the 15th annual Fetish Factory Weekend. Details of the event can be found at the site. While attending the event, I will be measuring clients for custom corsets. If you wish to be measured for a custom corset, please drop me an email, and we can set up an appropriate time.
